

INSPIRE

Indiana's Virtual Library

INSPIRE is Indiana's on-line library available free to all Indiana residents.

INSPIRE is a collection of commercial databases and other information resources that can be accessed using any computer equipped with an Internet connection and a Web browser such as Netscape or Internet Explorer.

At INSPIRE you can search for information in over 10,000 magazines for children and adults.

At INSPIRE you will find links to Indiana:

- Careers and employment
- Government
- History
- Museums and Art Galleries
- Newspapers
- Radio and TV stations
- Schools and universities
- Sports

www.inspire.net

INSPIRE, the Indiana Virtual Library, is a service of the libraries of Indiana through INCOLSA and is funded by the residents of Indiana through the Indiana General Assembly and by the Indiana State Library through a federal LSTA grant.

THE QUESTIONS:

- Do you want to find answers to homework questions?
- Will looking up information in a free on-line encyclopedia help you finish your homework?
- Are you interested in timely information about international news events?
- Do you need information about a medication or medical treatment?
- Are you interested in reviews of newly released CDs and movies?
- Are you looking for information about scientists, sports figures, or politicians?
- Do you wonder about what your pet likes to eat?
- Are you in need of current information on stocks and investing?

The ANSWER:

www.inspire.net

For further information, contact your school or public librarian.